COMPANY .- Miss Richmond's company played Fatinitza again last evening to a good audience. The performance went off nicely, and there were several well-deserved encores. Miss Adab is, beyond doubt, a very attractive little woman, a good actress, full of vim, and graceful. She is a favorite here. Miss Belle Girard, the Princess, sang again very acceptably, and fully satisfied her andience that she has a good voice. The stagescene most natural and interesting. The snow-balling was up to nature. The Sergeant, Mr. James Vincent, put his whole soul into it, and to him is due much of the credit of the success of the cntertainment. His acting was very fine. His facial expressions in the last act, while the Count read Fatinitza's letter, were wonderful, and he brought down the house. Mr. Sturgis, we believe, took the part of the sheriff last year in the Chimes; but this season he amuses everybody as Mustapha,
